Local governments and not-for-profit organizations that receive stimulus funds will be required to comply with reporting provisions of American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

This training program, which will be presented by KPMG, will describe the details of the reporting requirements and the process and timelines for submitting and verifying the required data.

It is recommended for those who will:

- have a "hands-on" role in administering federal stimulus grants, or
- act as liaison to the State agencies providing the
